Extended Holiday Is Not Approved

Groups Drop Plans
Reorganize Petitions

The University faculty has approved a 1949 calendar allowing the same one-day Thanksgiving holiday, and voted down a proposal for January commencement.

No motion was made to grant an extended Thanksgiving holiday this year or next, according to Vice President Leo Chamberlain, who presided at the Monday afternoon meeting.

Extension Is Impractical
An extension this year is impractical, Dr. Chamberlain said. No formal resolutions or student petitions for next year have been received by the faculty, he said.

The faculty feels it would be undesirable to break the academic year so close to Christmas vacation, according to the vice president.

When news of the faculty action reached campus groups sponsoring petitions, these petitions were called in and reorganized with next year in view.

See page two for editorial and letters.
See page four, section two, for features and story.

The Student Government Association tabled a resolution favoring a Thanksgiving vacation when the faculty action was made known at SGA's Monday night meeting.

Request Plans Being Made
Plans to request a vacation next fall are now underway, Johnny Crockett, SGA president, said.

At the assembly's direction, Crockett wrote the following open letter to the student body:

"To The Students:
The students, I think, should be entitled to know why the Student Government Assembly failed to pass favorably upon a request from one of the campus organizations for a longer Thanksgiving holiday.

There has been much grumbling, and rightfully so, since the announcement that school would be dismissed only on Thanksgiving Day. It has been pointed out that the very large majority of schools receive three or four days at Thanksgiving.

Other contestants for queen were Gloria Blainco, Harriet Russell, Anna Faye Hooks, Marianna Parker, Marianna Poer, Jeanette Blair, Micki Curtis, Betty Hammock, Betty Hensley, Barbara Bonham, Eloise Kirk, Rita Klein, Jane Wessels, Jane Barnett, Elizabeth LaRue, Betty Lyon, Christine Cook, Nancy Gallen, and Mary Ann McQuaid.

1949 Kyians On Sale At Special Price

Orders for 1949 Kentuckyans are now being taken at a special price of $4, according to Charles Whaley, editor.

Because of rising production costs, the annual will sell for $5 after the current order ends Nov. 24. Copy of the Kentuckyian may be reserved by paying a $2 deposit in the Kernel business office in McVey Hall or at the ticket booth in the SUB.

The cover for this year's Kentuckyian is on display on the bulletin board by the check room in the SUB.

UK Group Attends Home Ec Convention

Four faculty members and a group of Home Economics students will represent UK at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Home Economics Association today and tomorrow at the Brown Hotel in Louisville.

The faculty members attending are Miss Elizabeth Helton, Miss Zelma Monroe, and Miss Helen Wilmore, of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, and Miss Ruth Sneed of the department of education.

Mortar Board Taking Orders For Mums

Pre-game orders for chrysanthemums are being taken by the Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, today in the post office and in front of the SUB.

Mums will also be sold Saturday morning from 10-12 at the Phoenix Hotel, Lafayette Hotel, Williams Drug Store and Dunns Drug Store; and from 12-2 p.m. in front of the stadium.

History Journal To Be Published By UK Press

The Journal of Southern History, the quarterly publication of the Southern Historical Association, will be moved to new headquarters at the University soon.

The journal will be published by the University Press under the editorship of Dr. Thomas D. Clark, head of the UK Department of History.

The placing of the journal at the University "brings to the campus of the University a fine scholarly journal, recognized as one of the best regional journals published in the United States," according to Dr. Clark.

Founded at LSU in 1935 under the editorship of Dr. Wendell Stephenson, former UK history professor and editor of the University Press, the journal is a historical quarterly devoted to the publication of articles, documents, notes, and book reviews related to Southern history.

Dr. J. Merton England, assistant professor of history at UK, will assist Dr. Clark as editorial associate of the publication.

Harvard Faculty Member Speaks Here Next Week

Theodore Morrison, members of the English faculty at Harvard University and director of the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference for 16 years, will give three talks at the University of Kentucky next week.

One of his appearances, set for 8 p.m. Tuesday in Memorial Hall, will be open to the public. His subject will be "Chaucer, the Worldly Poet."

First Talk To Be Monday

His first address, to be given at 3:30 p.m. Monday, in Room 111 of McVey Hall, has been designed particularly for English and journalism majors with a particular interest in creative writing and for faculty members who wish to attend.

The general subject will be creative writing, with emphasis on the problems of the beginner.

The third talk will be restricted to students enrolled in the course, "The Short Story," and will be given in the classroom in the Guignol Theater Building at 3:30 p.m. Nov. 17. It is expected, there, that manuscripts submitted by students will be considered.

Morrison Preparing Book

Mr. Morrison has been a student of Chaucer for many years and has in preparation the manuscript of a book, "The Portable Chaucer," which will be published in 1950. He is the author of three books of poetry, "The Serpent in the Cloud," "Notes of Death and Life," and "The Devious Way." Before joining the Harvard faculty he was on the editorial staff of the "Atlantic Monthly" for five years.

Both at Bread Loaf and at Harvard he has won a reputation as a critic of letters and as a helper of beginning writers. Two Lexingtonians, Henry Hornsby, whose as yet untitled Kentucky-mountain novel will be published in February, and A. B. Guthrie Jr., author of "The Big Sky," both received editorial guidance from Mr. Morrison. The Bread Loaf Writers' Conference has come to be the acknowledged model for others.

Mr. Morrison is one of a number of important figures in the literary world whom the English department will bring to the University of Kentucky campus during the year. Others will include Robert Frost, Joseph Kinsey Howard, William Sloane and Robert P. T. Coffin.

Kiviniemi Is Soloist In Sunday Musicales

Aimo Kiviniemi, tenor, will appear as soloist in a five-part recital of classical and modern compositions at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Memorial Hall.

One of the highlights of the concert will be Mr. Kiviniemi's presentation of a representative Finnish song, "Laulule," by Yrjo Kilpinen. The program will also include songs from the Baroque school of music, operatic types, English moderns, and an assortment of compositions by contemporary composers.

A native of Ohio and of Finnish descent, Mr. Kiviniemi has been associated with the University of Kentucky music faculty as an instructor in voice since September, 1946. He has studied both in this country and in Italy and has made a special study of Finnish art song literature.

A veteran of World War II, he served five years in the U. S. Signal Corps. He spent 31 months overseas and participated in the African and Italian campaigns.

This, the third in a series of Sunday afternoon musicales sponsored by the music department, will be open to the public, and there will be no charge.

Mrs. Kiviniemi will serve as accompanist.

Wildcats Meet Gators In Homecoming Game

A favored Kentucky Wildcat team meets the University of Florida Gators on Stoll Field Saturday. Coach Bryant will have to feed Gatorburgers to some 25,000 Homecoming, hungry, football fans, to register his first 1948 SEC victory.

The Gatorgrinder will be cranked by one of the South's leading players when George Blanda starts the grind. In-again, out-again Blanda is in-again with Kentucky rooters due to four straight defeatless Saturdays.

Serving as co-captain, will be Halfback Jim Howe and Fullback Bill Boller.

One Of The Menu:
CHUCK HUNSINGER — fast, powerful, elusive, good pass receiver — a halfback — danced 64 yards on punt return for score against Georgia last week.

HAL GRIFFIN — junior, 5' 8", 185 pounds — breakaway halfback who's always dangerous — averaged 26.7 yards per punt return last year to set new national collegiate record.

FLETCHER GROVES — captain — Guard, 180 pounds — experienced, mainstay in a line so rugged it forced mighty Georgia to take to the air.

DOUG BELDEN — Gator's regular "quarterback" for last two years — in '47 completed 35 passes for 479 yards and two scores — plays defensive halfback.

JOHN GILBERT — a senior — Center, 180 pounds — experienced reserve until outstanding performance in last week's 20-12 defeat by Georgia moved him out of the bench — time and again he hit Fassin Johnny Rauch before he could start throwin'.

Buses Replace Train For Tennessee Game

Two Greyhound buses have replaced the train chartered by SuKy as transportation facilities to Knoxville for the Kentucky-Tennessee game Nov. 20. Available seats have been reduced from 175 to 35 in addition to 35 reservations for SuKy members.

Ticket prices, which include round trip fare and admission to the game, have been lowered to $11. Reservations for the trip and refunds of the train fare may be made at the ticket booth in the SUB from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The buses will leave the Student Union at 6 a.m. Nov. 20, and return from Knoxville at 11 p.m. after the game.

Gifts To University Accepted By Trustees

Four gifts to the University were accepted by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees at a meeting, Nov. 6.

A collection of 202 medical books and periodicals from Dr. R. Julian East and the late Dr. T. H. Kinnaid, Lexington, was presented to the Library.

Other Library acceptances were 248 books from Dr. Joe Varden, Paris, and steel engravings of Sir Isaac Newton and William Shakespeare from Mrs. George P. Sprague, Lexington.

An addition to the Ashland Oil and Refining Company Scholarship Fund was accepted.

Annual Homecoming Events Begin Tonight

YM-YW Sponsor 'Hamlet' Tonight As WSSF Aid

The Barter Theater of Virginia will present Shakespeare's "Hamlet" at 8:15 tonight in the Henry Clay High School auditorium, under the sponsorship of the University YM and YWCA. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will go to the World Student Service Fund.

Tickets will be on sale until noon today at Williams Drugs, Graves-Cox, Campus Book Store, and the Y offices in the SUB.

Theater Organized In 1933
The Barter Theater was organized in Virginia in 1933 and operated for a number of years as a summer theater in Abingdon.

Following the war, Barter, which received its name from the custom of exchanging food for tickets during the depression, began operating as a year-around professional repertory theater.

Breen Casts Hamlet
The cast for "Hamlet" the organization's 20th production, is headed by Robert Breen and Jacqueline Logan. Breen directed and acted in the original "G.I. Hamlet" in 1943. Miss Logan, a star in pre-talkie motion pictures, played Mary Magdalene in Cecil B. DeMille's "King of Kings."

In addition to Breen and Miss Logan, the Barter cast includes Leo Chalzel, Gerry Jedd, Ray Boyle, and James Andrews.

The play is produced by Nat Karson of Broadway and Hollywood, and is an entirely new theatrical presentation of the Shakespearean tragedy.

Pledges Accepted By Press Club

Four men were pledged to the Henry Watterson Press Club at a meeting in the Student Union Building November 4.

Harry Green, George Reynolds, Allen Terhune, and Charles Whaley are the pledges of the men's professional journalism society.

To be eligible for membership, a journalism student must have attained the classification of sophomore and have a 1.8 standing in journalism and a 1.5 overall standing.

Prof. J. A. McCauley of the journalism department addressed the group on the value of schools of journalism opposed to practical on-the-job training of newspaper men.

The pledges will be initiated at the beginning of the next semester, after completing a journalistic project assigned to them.

Trophies Given In Room Contest

Kappa Delta sorority and Hamilton House won first place in the room-judging contest sponsored by the House President's Council, Nov. 7.

The Kappa Deltas received a new trophy because they have won the award for the last three years. The girls winning the contest were Emma Lou Patrick and Sally Youtsey.

The trophy presented to Hamilton House, residence hall group, was won by Alice Word, Jean Eubank, Eloise Eubank, Helen Hollinsworth, Betty Andes, and Mageline Gambelin.

Blue ribbon winners in the sorority group were Delta Zeta, second, and Zeta Tau Alpha, third. The girls were Phyllis Cliver, Shirley Porter, Cathy Cook, and Lorraine Griffin, second; and Martha Purdy and Lou Trimble, third.

Other awards of the residence hall group were presented to Jewell Hall, Mei Sueh Tsai and Marjorie Cutler were second, and Charlene Orr, Anne Littleton and Betsy Tandy won third place.

Debating Team Reorganization On UK Campus Is Announced

By Pat Thomas

"The University has been without a debating team since 1938 but with sufficient student interest organized debate will soon make a comeback," said Dr. Gifford Blyton, associate professor of speech and director of debate and discussion activities.

Dr. Blyton, who came here from Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, where he was director of men's forensics, was brought here for the purpose of reorganizing UK debate.

Students from all parts of the country and Canada on his debating squads from Western Michigan College won 80 per cent of the debates during his seven-year stay there.

Although this record is impressive, Dr. Blyton believes that successful debating does not stress winning. "Intelligent discussion is stronger than misdirected eloquence of speech," he commented.

Wants Tau Kappa Alpha At UK
In addition to the revival of debating, Dr. Blyton hopes to reactivate Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensics honorary. He is the regional governor of Tau Kappa Alpha and is at present co-manager of Tau Kappa Alpha's National Discussion Conference and Legislative Assembly which will be held at Purdue University late in March.

Tau Kappa Alpha is open to all students who complete one year of forensic work and scholastically are in the upper 35 per cent of the student body.

Has Traveled Extensively
Dr. Blyton has traveled in nearly every state in the U.S., Alaska, Canada, and the Bahamas. He also took post-graduate work at the University of Hawaii, Honolulu, in 1944. He has assisted in writing two texts on speech and is now writing a text on discussion.

During his career as a student and teacher of speech, Dr. Blyton has had dramatic experience in such plays as "Romeo and Juliet," "He

Beverly Davis

Art Student Wins $500 Scholarship For 1948 Term

Beverly Jeanne Davis, junior in the Arts and Sciences College, has been awarded the Frances Jewell McVey scholarship for the 1948-49 term, Dean Sarah B. Holmes has announced.

The scholarship, set up in 1946 to honor the wife of Frank L. McVey, president emeritus, carries a stipend of $500 this year.

The grant is awarded annually by the University scholarship committee to a deserving woman student, and represents interest on an investment of nearly $20,000 contributed by more than 500 friends of Mrs. McVey.

Stipend Highest In History
According to Dean Holmes, this year's stipend is the highest since the inauguration of the scholarship.

Selection of the student is made by the University scholarship committee primarily on the basis of high scholarship. Personality of the individual and campus activities are also considered.

Miss Davis, a graduate of Wilmore High School, has University average of 2.48. She is an art major, and is considered an outstanding student in painting, design, and sculpture. She writes poetry and is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Lambda Delta, Chi Delta Phi and the Art Club. She also illustrates for Vogue, campus literary magazine.

The scholarship becomes effective immediately and is paid in five monthly installments of $100 each by the Kentucky Research Foundation, a non-profit University corporation administering the scholarship fund and other non-state money.

Previous recipients of the scholarship are Helen Huichcraft, 1946-47, and Mary Sue McWhirter, 1947-48.

Dance Climaxes Weekend Fetes

By Barbara Ann Warren
UK's annual Homecoming celebration for one of the largest gatherings of alumni and former students ever to visit the campus will be held this week-end with the Kentucky-Florida football game as the main attraction.

Festivities of the week-end will close Saturday night with the Homecoming dance sponsored by the Student Union Board.

Pep Rally Scheduled
SuKy will get the celebration under way tonight with a torchlight parade and pep rally. The parade, led by SuKy members and cheerleaders on a truck, will form at 7 p.m. in front of Alumni Gymnasium.

The parade will move downtown to the Phoenix Hotel where cheers will be led from the SuKy truck. The parade will return to the intramural field where a bonfire pep rally will be held.

Alumni will register at three local hotels and at the campus office of the Alumni Association Saturday morning. There will be a luncheon in the Student Union Ballroom for alumni and former students at 11:30 a.m.

Exhibits Being Prepared
Residence units, fraternities, and sororities are working on exhibits with the Homecoming theme. Judging of the exhibits will start at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, and the winners will be announced at the Homecoming Dance.

Bryant Whitfield, representing Alma Magna Mater, will give a julep cup to the outstanding alumnus at a pre-game presentation.

Team Of '88 To Be Honored
The Best Band in Dixie will parade during the half-time at the game. The band members will form an alligator in honor of the Florida team. They will also form 1898, in honor of Kentucky's outstanding, unbeaten, unscored-on team of that year. Bernie Shively, athletic director, will introduce the seven living members of that team and their coach.

Following the game, President and Mrs. Donovan will hold an open house at Maxwell Place for the alumni and friends of the University.

Homecoming Dance Informal
The informal Homecoming dance will get underway at 8 p.m. Music will be furnished by the Kentucky State Collegians from Frankfort. Admission will be $1, and tickets are on sale at the ticket booth in the SUB and will be on sale at the door tomorrow night. Tables may be reserved with the purchase of five tickets.

The Alumni Association will sponsor an informal dance at the Lafayette Hotel at 8:30 p.m.

Mining and metallurgical pledges are Richard Beaver, Ralph Preston, John Whitmer, James Stone, Bob Grimm, and Edwards Rowady.

Civil engineering students pledged were Robert Frye, Carl Hart, William Gutermuth, Roy Wallace, George Williams, John Crawford, Fred Cray, and Gordon Witt.

Chemical Society Names Barnett As President

Howard Barnett has been elected president of the P. E. Tuttle Chapter of the Student Affiliate of the American Chemical Society.

SUB Offers Ballroom For Dances—Rent Free

Any student organization, including fraternities and sororities, will be allowed to hold one dance RENT FREE in the Student Union Ballroom, according to Mackie Rasdall, director of the SUB.

In order to encourage social dancing on the campus, the Social Committee has relaxed the $50 rental fee charged for the ballroom for the school year 1948-49.

The group sponsoring the dance must have faculty recognition and have the request approved by the Social Committee.

Thanksgiving Off In 49?

When the Kernel urged a Thanksgiving vacation in last week's editorial, and when campus organizations began circulating petitions, few people concerned really believed that the faculty would grant the holiday this year.

Students did feel that such an expression of student opinion at this time would influence faculty action on next year's calendar.

The faculty met Monday and approved a one-day Thanksgiving holiday for 1949. This was a logical action in view of the fact that no student petitions had as yet been presented to them.

The faculty is a reasonable group and probably would respond to a formal indication of student opinion.

Calendars are not easy to arrange, but practically all semester-system schools manage a Thanksgiving vacation, without necessarily cutting the Christmas holidays.

UK students are not just vocalizing to create an agitation. We are not just trying to "get out of school," for we realize that we must compensate for the time to have a normal-length semester. Our reasons for wanting a holiday seem justified, we think.

We really want and believe we need a full-length Thanksgiving vacation.

Because the 1949 calendar has already been adopted, student groups, led by the Student Government Association, should take action immediately.

Let's not wait until next Thanksgiving to try to get results on such a wide-spread student request.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor of the Kernel:

The honor system is very unlikely to work at our state university. An one who has had four years of prep school honor systems, and who loved it, I do not need to even look around me in many classes to sincerely believe that such a system is workable primarily for younger, more formative, more pliable students, especially at those schools where the sexes are segregated separately.

Universities should not have the impossible job of indoctrinating fully formed men and women in the concepts and conduct of honor, a thing which if ordinarily not, cultivated tenderly long ago, can never be put over so late in academic life.

There are, however, some notable successes with this among eastern universities, such as the University of Virginia. But there are many more successes among the prep schools of the east.

Since many eastern prep school boys continue on to college in the great private and traditional universities of Yankeland, it is only logical that they should carry prep school training with them and give those universities a big jump on other schools in making the honor system work.

In eastern schools, with which I am more familiar, questions of discipline and warnings and indoctrination are left pretty completely in the hands of older student leaders whose recommendations for dismissal are usually accepted by the authorities. Let me emphasize that power of expulsion is the degree of discipline needed to make the system work. I regret to say that fear seems to precede love and honor. The expulsion of the incorrigible greatly strengthens those wavering brothers on the borderline in the honor code.

Should so much power ever be granted student leaders at U. of K., which it will not be in our time, then the idea of expulsion in a state-owned institution would not sit well with rural and down-state voters, nor with the powers at Frankfort.

Welcome, Grads

Homecoming is the signal for mass painting and construction work in front of fraternity and sorority houses and dorms, pep rallies, elaborate band preparations for half-time, and the return of UK alumni to the campus.

Probably more come to see the football game than to pay their respects to their alma mater, but there will be many graduates to be seen wandering around campus landmarks tomorrow, and celebrating reunions with old friends.

The University welcomes these alumni. We hope that they find the homecoming decorations as colorful, the parties as good, and the team preferably better than during undergraduate days.

me no success at all. Let's don't adopt something that would only be a joke to many on our campus. Let's improve instead projects already underway which are only half finished.

Sincerely,
MARCEL MICHEL

Russell des Cognets Jr.

Dear Madam:

I agree completely with your editorial about Thanksgiving holidays. I have heard indeed many students complaining of being deprived of a visit home because of UK regulations on this matter.

Traditions and family spirit are two great things, and every opportunity for them should be encouraged.

Dear Editor:

I agree with you one hundred per cent concerning a Thanksgiving holiday.

I live one hundred miles from home and would enjoy a good Thanksgiving dinner.

Sincerely yours,
G. S. BROCK

Dear Editor:

Just finished scanning the "Weekly Advertiser" and as usual felt a faint feeling of disgust.

Your reporters seem to be getting little training and probably will have trouble getting jobs after graduation.

It looks on the surface as though the Kernel is being run as a racket. It by no means follows the principals of good journalism.

I am sure there must be some good reason for the inadequacy of the paper and I feel that you should devote an editorial to the subject. Surely the $15,000 a year received from subscriptions is sufficient to cover expenses, making so many ads unnecessary.

CHARLES SCHIFFLER, '48

Dear Editor:

I wholeheartedly agree with the editorial in this morning's Kernel on Thanksgiving holidays. Please use all your influence and that of the Kernel to give us a break. Those of us who don't live in Kentucky can't make it home on a weekend or a Thursday-only holiday.

WILLIAM J. WILSON

Dear Editor:

I think your idea for a Thanksgiving day holiday is a fine one. It could be that if we had a little break from our studies we just might be able to give out with a little pep.

Furthermore, it would be kind of nice for out of state students to get home for a change. A holiday certainly wouldn't hurt us.

Your truly,
B. KOLLER

Bob McCowan Says:

I think the best buy on the campus today is the Shopper's Saver Coupon book. I bought one of the books last week and so far I've saved $20.

Thursday afternoon I decided to get some of my personal things repaired. I took my shoes to McAtee's, my watch to the Jewel Box, topcoat to Weave Masters, and my radio to Pieratt's. Total savings for the afternoon $2.85. Thursday night I took advantage of the free skate at Scott's Roll-arena. Friday I took my cleaning to the Student Press Shop and saved $0.50. Friday night I took advantage of the free pass to the Old Fireplace.

Saturday I saved 10 per cent by using the coupon at Shanklin's Florist. My father needed some "handy man" supplies for the home and saved $1.50 at Faig Hardware. I expect to save $4 to $6 on my Christmas shopping by using the discounts offered at Jay's Jewelry and the Phoenix Luggage Shop.

My aunt used the book when shopping for her son and saved two dollars at Tots and Teens and $3.50 at Smith Watkins when she bought toys for Christmas. I saved a dollar and a half by using the free lubrication at Dunlap and Wiley Service Station and the free park at the East Short Parking Lot. I am having a suit tailored at Bomanzi and expect to save $6 with the coupon that's good for ten per cent on any purchase in the store. Next Friday I will save $1.50 by using the free admission to Joyland.

This coupon book has really cut the high cost of living for me.

giving. It has also been revealed that this school was always dismissed for several days when the semester system was in effect before the war.

These observations are largely true.
Too Late For Change
However, a change in the calendar, which would grant the long holiday, would have to be passed upon by the faculty at their monthly meeting. This body met last Monday, Nov. 8, and will not meet again until sometime in December—too late.

Perhaps President Donovan could be moved by student opinion to call a special faculty meeting? Even in the very doubtful event that the President would call such a meeting, the possibility of receiving a favorable action from that body is indeed a very slim one.

For when the faculty draws up the year's calendar, it must consider that there should be a certain number of days per semester. A longer Thanksgiving holiday would necessitate either taking those days from the Christmas holiday or adding them to the end of the semester.

Assembly Rejects Request
Upon consideration of these facts, the assembly decided to reject the request to circulate petitions among the students.

It is the belief of SGA that now is the time to begin working for a long holiday next Thanksgiving. The organizations which have taken the lead in presenting the problem to the students have, as I understand, called an end to their efforts. They are to be praised for their sincere work in behalf of the students.

JOHNNY CROCKETT
President, SGA

The January commencement proposal had been instigated mainly by the Student Bar Association and the Veteran's Club.
The Student Government Association and other groups had passed resolutions favoring the plan.

Dr. Chamberlain explained that although the class graduating in January was large enough to warrant commencement exercises, most students were able to attend June commencement.

Certificate Available
A student can always get a certificate upon graduation, Dr. Chamberlain said.

W. E. W. Howe of the Naval Research Laboratory will be in the conference room of Anderson Hall from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday to explain the Navy's program.

Two sets of examinations have been announced. One, for seniors, covers P-1 engineers, physicists, mathematicians, and metallurgists. No written test is required, and applicants are only required to submit an application form to give a record of their education and experience.

Musical Will Honor Two Groups Weekly

The music department has inaugurated a new feature for the Sunday afternoon musicals by naming two campus organizations for special guests at each concert.

The first two groups to be honored were the Delta Zeta sorority and the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, who with their dates numbered about 150, at last Sunday's concert.

The members of these groups are given reserve seats, and they furnish ushers for the concert at which they are guests.
The three University glee clubs will be the guests at this week's concert.

The entrance salary for persons accepted is $2974 a year.
Another examination, for juniors in engineering, mathematics, or physical sciences who expect to complete their junior year before June 30, 1949, will be held in February.

Candidates accepted from this examination will receive a starting salary of $2724 a year.

DisKentucky Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Kentucky and Florida are said to have the two fastest backfields in the Southeastern Conference. Plenty of scoring is expected should the sod on Stoll Field dry out fairly well by Saturday afternoon.

The leading backs for UK this season in rushing are as follows: Dick Martin (6 rushing attempts, 46 yards net gain, for a 7.6 average); Norm Klein (26-186-7.1); Lee Truman (5-21-4.2); Shorty Jamerson (47-195-4.1); Jim Howe (23-94-4.0) and Clayton Webb (39-15-4.0).

"It's almost phenomenal," said Georgia's Coach Wally Butts last week after the Bulldog-Gator game, "when you stop to consider the great comeback the Florida club has made. There is no comparison of this year's team with the 1947 squad. Wolf has certainly got a bunch of fast, ground-gaining backs. Hunsinger is the best runner in the league."

Shortly before Butts made the last statement, Chuck Hunsinger, a junior halfback from Harrisburg, Ill., scored the final Florida touchdown against Georgia on a fine 64-yard dash.

Butts went on to say that only the passing of Rauch and the running of Halfbacks Joe Geri and Billy Mixon saved a possible upset.

So look out, Wildcats!

After the Henry Clay-Somerset football game a week ago, we talked with Frank Groschelle, the Briar Jumpers' 269-pound tackle. Asked about UK, the 16-year-old giant said that he had spoken with Coach Moseley.

However, he added that he had been down to Knoxville for a visit at the University of Tennessee and was strongly considering joining the Vols after his graduation.

The head coach of Somerset High told us that he was only 16 years of age and was moved up a year while in grade school because of his size. He stands 3' 4" now.

It is rather surprising that Tennessee's Neyland wants him for usually the Vol tackles are relatively light but fast. There is only one tackle on the Orange eleven this season that is over 215 pounds.

We personally hope that Groschelle changes his mind and comes to UK. He would be valuable to have in the line, especially on a wet and muddy gridiron.

Approximately 400 musicians participated in the halftime show at the Kentucky-Villanova football game last Saturday on Stoll Field.

Along with the 85-piece Kentucky band, there were seven high school bands which joined in a mass formation covering the length of the field to spell out a vari-colored KENTUCKY.

The high schools performing in the display were Henry Clay, Lafayette, Dunbar, Danville, Frankfort, and Georgetown. The Little Dunbar organization, with their enthusiastic majorettes, stole the show although the Georgetown band, which formed the "Y" looked mighty snappy in its brief appearance.

Frank J. Prindl, director of the UK band, was in charge of the program and deserves a word of praise for the fine show.

Kentucky backs fumbled three times in seven plays at one stage of the second half in the Villanova game last Saturday.

Pullback Clayton Webb fumbled first, with UK on the visitors 47. Kentucky later regained the ball. Five runs later, Ralph Geni bobbed the piskin on the Kentucky 22. Shorty Jamerson then intercepted a Doherty aerial on the 4 and returned it to the UK 46. On the very next play, Bill Bolter fumbled and Villanova recovered on the Big Blue's 45.

Few teams can lose three fumbles in such a short time and expect to do much scoring against a squad like Villanova. Even one fumble could cost Kentucky the game against Tennessee next week.

In a crucial contest, fumbleitis is often a deadly disease in football.

In the last three games (Marquette, Cincinnati and Villanova), Kentucky has allowed only three touchdowns, all on passes. Marquette failed to score; Cincinnati got one tally on an aerial; and Villanova's two touchdowns last Saturday were both as a result of passes.

Billy Fuqua's 49-yard run in the Vanderbilt game of October 16 was the last touchdown scored through the improving Wildcat forward line.

In the first quarter of the Villanova contest last week, Kentucky held the Philadelphia team on the UK 4. The visitor's 210-pound fullback, Pete D'Alonzo, made a first down on the UK 6. Bob Polidor, D'Alonzo and John Geppi all tried to score, but could only move the ball to the 4-yard stripe. Finally Bill Doherty passes over the line for the score.

In the line for Kentucky at this time were Guards Ray Porter and Dick Holway; Tackles Bob Gain and Lloyd McDermott; Ends Wah Jones and Ben Zaranka; Harry Ulinski, Lee Truman and Jim Howe were backing up the line.

Intramural Sports

By Tom Spillman and Claude Sprows

The championship touch football game will start at 12 noon tomorrow on Stoll Field as a preliminary to the Florida game.

Efforts are under way to mimeograph programs with the numbers of the players for the two teams, who will be wearing UK practice jerseys.

The upper bracket winner, DTD, will meet the lower bracket winner, either SX or ATO, depending on the results of yesterday's game.

SX has a consecutive win streak for three straight years. Coach Dick Beal's men operate from the double wing, and their offensive strength is in the passing of Bill Branch.

For the Dels, John Kaster will be the individual to watch. He can pass and run very well.

DTD 1, Kinkead Hall 0

The biggest upset of the year came Wednesday afternoon when DTD won from Kinkead Hall in an overtime.

The Dels gained four yards in the four downs allowed after regular playing time had run out, while Kinkead was held to two yards.

Signa Chi 27, Turtles 0

Last Thursday, SX overpowered the Northern KY Turtles 27-0 in a game marked with rough play and infractions of the rules.

Bill Branch passed to all four touchdowns, and three points after touchdowns were added.

ATO 7, KS 6

After trailing 6-0 on Tuesday, ATO came back to win 7-6 from KS on Wednesday.

The game was called at the end of the third quarter Tuesday because of darkness, and the remainder of the game rescheduled for Wednesday.

KS's score came on a pass from J. Stewart to Tom Gipe.

ATO scored on a pass from Stamer to Saad for the touchdown, and Stamer passed to Boswell, the center, for the extra point.

Kinkead Hall 1, SN 0

In a game extending over two days, Dr. Wall's team won from SN in an overtime on Monday afternoon.

At the end of the regular game on Monday, behind the gym, the score was 0-0. The overtime was delayed until Tuesday, because of darkness, and the Dorm aggregation covered the most yardage in four downs then.

DTD 18, PKT 7

Two safeties, two touchdowns, and two extra points after touchdowns enabled DTD to beat PKT last Monday.

Quarterback Kaster, DTD, ran 20 yards for the first TD and passed 39 yards for the second.

For PKT a 46 yard pass from Glass to Hite at the end of the game prevented a shutout.

Golf and Tennis

Golf and tennis playoffs are still hanging fire because of bad weather. Both singles and doubles of golf, and the doubles of tennis need to be completed. Holland won the tennis singles championship.

Volleyball play started last Tuesday night in Alumni Gym.

The complete schedule of each night's play is posted on the IM bulletin board along with the official rules.

Ping Pong

As soon as the tables are available, a ping pong tournament will be held in the basement of the athletic building. Bill McCubbin, IM director, announces.

Bowling

Bowling takes place each Monday evening in the University alleys on Euclid Avenue.

John Crosthwaite has done a good job compiling the scores, averages, and high games, for both teams and individuals. These results are posted in the bowling alley where they may be inspected by the public.

This week the three top teams (by averages are:

Tri-Y 768

LXA 768.2

500 Club 762.1

The three highest individual averages went to:

C. Brown (LXA) 192.5

J. Stewart (KA) 172.5

J. V. Larkin (SN) 172.1

For this week only, the high team game was 881 for PSK. 500 Club took top honors for high team average with 818.5.

J. V. Larkin (SN) has the high individual game of 225 for this week, and R. Ecklar (500 Club) with 199 takes the top individual average.

Loren Broadus, 155-pound Florida Gator sophomore left halfback from Jacksonville, was named by Florida sports writers for the 1946 Orange Bowl Award to the "Most Outstanding High School Athlete."

Neither Florida nor Kentucky have won a Conference game this year.

Florida has not played outstanding football this fall, but appear on the up grade due to last week's near upset of mighty Georgia, Conference leaders and four-touchdown favorites, the score being a tight 20-12.

However if determination, fight, and the will to win have anything to do with the score, Gatorburgers will be served on Stoll field tomorrow, starting promptly at 2 p.m.

Manager Of UK Equipment Has Full Time Job

By John Crockett

Perhaps the busiest man on the campus is Harvey Brown a 24-year-old former marine.

Harvey is the University equipment manager.

Contrary to popular belief, being an equipment manager is not a part time, student activity with a school letter as recognition of services performed. Harvey is on the job every morning at eight o'clock. It is a rare day indeed if he is able to leave before dark.

Brown is responsible for every piece of athletic equipment owned by the University. This is no small responsibility, for it includes all the equipment used by the University in carrying out its athletic program.

Harvey's job also requires that he be responsible for having all equipment cleaned. He estimated that laundry costs alone run well over 100 dollars weekly during the football and basketball seasons.

"It would be impossible to attend to all my duties were it not for the help of four or five student managers," said Harvey. "They are particularly helpful in issuing equipment when I'm busy with my other duties." This gives some idea of the size of the job which Brown very cheerfully performs. Harvey is very definite in his work. He feels a definite responsibility for the care of the needs of the Wildcat athletes.

Of the 50 men on the Florida football team, 41 are natives of the Alligator State. Three come from Alabama, and one each from North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Arkansas, Illinois, and Ohio.

The University of Florida was founded at Ocala in 1853, moved to Lake City in 1883, and moved to Gainesville in 1905.

to Indiana University and made All-American during the war at end. He is now playing with the Chicago Cards professional grid team.

"George Ratterman, a former quarterback at Notre Dame, also played against Howe in high school. His team, St. Xavier High of Cincinnati, lost to Highlands, 14-13, in Howe's senior year in a real thriller. Highlands went on to win the State crown that season (1943).

Ratterman, after leaving Notre Dame, joined the Buffalo Bills pro gridder last season, and in his first year, the slender Cincinnati developed into one of the top passers in professional football. He is still chucking for them this year.

Howe scored five touchdowns in 1944, in three games. Last season he tallied twice, and so far this year Jim has crossed into pay territory three times—all coming in the last two tilts.

Player Of The Week:

Jim Howe

The Kernel names Jim Howe as Player-of-the-Week for the second consecutive issue for his outstanding game against Villanova last Saturday on Stoll Field.

Howe came through in the final seconds of the contest with a beautiful 69-yard run which saved the day for Kentucky. His touchdown run and Bobby Brook's extra-point kick allowed the Big Blue to tie Philadelphia huskies in a thrilling finish. Only 8 seconds of playing time remained in the tilt when Jim scored.

Other standouts last week were:

Bob Gain, who continued his strong bid on All-Conference honors this season; Ray Porter, a scrappy guard who recovered a Main Liner fumble and spilled enemy runners for losses several times; Bill Boller, a hard-running halfback; Jerry Claiborne, who played well on the offense and defense; and last but not least, Shorty Jamerson, a little hustler who almost broke away for a TD, and who turned in his usual fine all-around performance.

Howe and Boller will serve as co-captains for the Florida fray.

It was these two lads that paced UK last year against Villanova in the Great Lakes Bowl game. Boller scored twice on runs of 11 and 51 yards, while Howe crossed into paydirt on another sprint. Blanda's field goal and three extra points were responsible for the other scoring in that 24-14 victory over Villanova last December.

PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK

The Kernel Players-of-the-Week for this season have been as follows:

Xavier: Clayton Webb
Ole Miss: Lee Truman
Georgia: Bob Gain
Vanderbilt: Clayton Webb
Marquette: Shorty Jamerson
Cincinnati: Jim Howe
Villanova: Jim Howe
Florida: ?

lanova last December.

Howe Real Mudder

Howe is perhaps the best mudder in the conference. He seemed to prove this last Saturday. Whenever the field is wet and muddy, the shifty halfback from Fort Thomas, Ky., is apt to be Kentucky's main threat. Past games bear this out. In his freshman year, Howe scored three touchdowns against West Virginia on a slow, soft gridiron.

Last year Jim scored in Morgantown, W. Va. This tally proved to be the winning one in the 15-6 victory for the Cats.

In the Michigan State game, which UK won 7-6, the junior back broke loose twice for long runs on a wet field. One run deep in Spartan territory was nullified by a Wildcat penalty.

Then last December 6, in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, Howe scored UK's first touchdown in the third period on a 29-yard jaunt, to help whip Villanova in UK's first appearance in a post-season encounter. That day was cool and misty and the turf in Municipal Stadium was on the soggy side.

Freshmen Cagers Prepping For Opener Nov. 22

By Tom Spillman

Preparing to meet the freshman squad of Wesleyan College on Nov. 22, Coach Harry Lancaster is working his freshman cagers steadily.

No one on the team is assured of a starting berth. There are some faults to be corrected, and several things to learn.

In addition to teaching his men the offensive attack so characteristic of UK, he is stressing good defense. The idea of "How can you win if your man scores as much as you do?" is constantly brought out.

The order of practice is roughly as follows: warm-up shots, practice in running plays, scrimmage, and then foul shots.

Standouts at present are as follows: Bill Spivey—wicked hook shot, Guy Strong—good defensive player, George Lambros—tricky ball handler, Gus Stergeos and "Skippy" Whitaker—fast and good shots, and Len Pearson—plenty of drive.

Tom Jessen, senior tackle from St. Paul, who does all of Cincy's point after touchdown attempts, converted 20 points last year in 27 tries.

Beard, Groza And Hirsch Standout In Cage Practice

The Kentucky Wildcat Basketball team is doing conditioning work in preparation for the first game of the season, Nov. 29 against Indiana Central in Alumni Gymnasium.

Ball handling and offensive drills have made up the larger part of practice sessions, with a short scrimmage against the freshmen rounding out an hour and a half of daily basketball for the NCAA champs.

Ralph Beard has been outstanding this week; he goes hard all the time, whether in ball handling drills, Olympic games, or intra-squad scrimmages. He did a great deal of ball hawking, hit his long shots.

Alex Groza was singled out by Coach Rupp for praise. He looks ready to go, and gets down the floor quicker on fast break than he did last year. He controls most rebounds.

Walt Hirsch is certainly in the running for a starting berth and rebounds in a class with Joe Holland; accurate shot, plays center and forward.

Dale Barnstable is in shape. Joe Hall, sophomore guard, is recovering from a tonsillectomy. Jim (Foul) Line has a sore back and didn't scrimmage much this week; he hits the bucket with monotonous regularity. John Stough's going to be a tough man to beat out for a starting guard spot. Cliff Barker says he'll be ready by Nov. 29.

Outstanding freshmen in varsity scrimmages this week were: Gus Stergeos, fast, good shot; Whitey Pierson from Chicago, has deceptive motion with ball; seven-foot Bill Spivey sank some pretty pivot shots over Groza's head; C. M. Newton, handles the ball well, doesn't shoot much; Guy Strong, accurate shot; Walt Whitaker, tall, has lost of hustle; and Bud King, cool, good team man.

—by Kent Hollingsworth

In seven previous meetings between Kentucky and Florida, the Wildcats have won five, and the Gators two. Biggest margin of victory in the series was Kentucky's 52-0 win in 1917. The smallest margin of victory was 7-2 in favor of Kentucky in 1931.

Howe's 69-Yard Run Gives Cats A 13-13 Tie With Villanova

A brilliant 69-yard touchdown run by Halfback Jim Howe with less than 30 seconds left in the game gave the Kentucky Wildcats a tie with Villanova College last Saturday on Stoll Field.

Howe took a short pass from Quarterback George Blanda on the right side of the field, dodged and twisted toward the left sidelines picking up Kentucky interference en route and then made a dash down the field into the end zone. Johnny Melhaus threw the final block on a burly Villanova player.

The sensational run enabled the Big Blue to avert their first loss to an intersectional foe while under the tutelage of Coach Paul Bryant.

As a result of this deadlock with Villanova, the Lexington Lynxes now have a mark against non-conference opponents, since the 1946 season or, 14 wins and a tie.

Main Liners Score Early
The Main Liners from Philadelphia scored in the opening quarter when, after a fine goal-line stand by the UK forward wall, Quarterback Bill Doherty tossed a short pass to End Ed Berrang, who made a difficult, stumbling catch in the end zone. Fullback Tom Clavin's conversion was good and the score stood VILLANOVA 7, KENTUCKY 0.

In the second quarter, the burly Wildcats from Pennsylvania scored again. Starting on their own 24, the Villanova eleven marched 76 yards with the tally coming on a pass from Halfback Bob Polidor to End Frank Kane in the end zone. Clavin's kick was blocked by UK's All-Southeastern candidate, Bob Gain, and the count went to VILLANOVA 13, KENTUCKY 0.

The half ended three minutes later.

Big Blue Gets Started
Kentucky received the kickoff to start the second half. They started from their 27 and paced by Jim Howe and Bill Boller moved the leather down field on a sustained drive.

Howe moved the ball from the 10-yard line to the 1. Then George Blanda called a Boller play, and the griddler from Beaver Falls, Pa., bucked the ball over for UK's initial marker. Halfback Bob Brook's placement was blocked by the VC line. The score: VILLANOVA 13, KENTUCKY 6.

In the late third quarter and throughout 14 minutes of the final canto, Kentucky's offense was stopped, largely because of three fumbles by UK backs.

Then, with just seconds left in the game, Blanda faded back for a pass and spotted Howe on his right. He flipped the ball to Howe, and the Fort Thomas junior cut to the left, picking up Kentucky interference, and raced down the left side for 39 yards and the all-important touchdown.

Seconds later Bobby Brooks, UK's promising sophomore from Gary, Ind., coolly made the conversion, which tied the game KENTUCKY 13, VILLANOVA 13.

End Benny Zaranka kicked to VC's Sylvio Yannelli and the final whistle blew soon after, with the ball

IM Director Bill McCubbin Former Wildcat Gridiron Star

By Tom Spillman

"Jack-of-all-trades." That might well be the title given to Bill McCubbin.

Besides his regular job as Intramural Director, his other "little tasks" are: freshman football end coach, wrestling instructor, teaching five physical education classes a week, supervising and ordering equipment for both the men's and women's physical education departments, scouting the Wildcat's opponents each week-end, officiating high school football games in his spare time, and showing films and addressing quarterback clubs.

All this and then his home life. He is married and has one child, a 16-month-old girl.

He got to see Kentucky play the second time this season last Saturday. The occasion was his 32nd birthday.

Bill played varsity football here at UK in 1937, '38, and '39 as an end.

Incidentally, the 1939 team had a 6-2-1 record. They beat Georgia 13-6, and Vanderbilt 21-13, and lost to Georgia Tech 6-13 and Tennessee 0-19. The Vols went to the Rose Bowl and Tech went to the Orange Bowl.

The tie was with Alabama, 7-7, who lucked out on a blocked punt. When he was playing on this team, Clyde Johnson was a freshman. In case you forgot, Clyde was later (19-42) All-American.

Bill was honorable mention for All-American, and was on the SEC second team in 1939.

"Mac", as he is called, also lettered in baseball in 1939 and 1940.

But don't get the idea he is one of those all brawn and no brain guys, even though he has a powerful physique.

He got his A.B. in June of 1940, then after serving his Uncle in the "late unpleasantness", he received an M.A. in 1946.

One of the best liked men in the department, he is never too busy to hear a man's beef or to discuss last week's game.

Bill served as a bombardier in the AAF from June of 1941 to October, 1945. During this time, he was a captain for two years.

Medals he won include three distinguished flying crosses, an air medal, and a presidential unit citation.

Five bowl teams play Florida this year: Mississippi-Delta Bowl; Georgia Tech-Orange Bowl; Georgia-Gator Bowl; Alabama-Sugar Bowl; and Kentucky-Great Lakes Bowl.

Estimated enrollment at the University of Florida this year is 8,500 students.

How does it feel to be back in shoes after an eventful Sadie Hawkins week? Well, anyhow, we gals tried hard enough!

Monk Stout is wondering vaguely who her "constant twosome" companion is. She doesn't know any Jim Stout. We don't know him either, so that makes us even!

Libby LaRue and Bob Kaiser have returned to the pinned status.

Catch of the week: Arthur Hounshell, who was caught by Rachel Johnson.

Lawes McClure has already framed the corsage from Sue Dossell.

Married: Topper Davis and Lynn Smith.

Charley Whaley and the "Salt Lick Bash" Cal Jones made all the rounds last Friday night.

It is rumored that the tumbleweeds are active again.

Some character named Santa Claus is worried about Jackie Miller—he writes John Parrish every night to count the days before Christmas.

Randy Tussey and Jean Burgin make a good couple.

Another Tri Delt-SAE alliance: Carolyn Hill and Bob Coleman, pinned this weekend.

Jack Wayman and Waldo Morgan have a new love. It's a car!

Jack Barrowman has gone to the dogs. Call the Journalism department for details.

Brick McCullough's appetite got the best of him at the Horseshoe. He ate five times and tipped the waitress so much that he had to wash dishes to get out of the place.

Keep your eye on Bob Creger and Nancy Bradford—might be the surprise of the season!

Sparks are flyin' around Barbara Willing and Doug Martin—wonder if ye olde flame is going to burn bright again?

Art Major Designs, Decorates Dean Of Women's Offices

By Wallace J. Fox
The University has a designing woman, but not in the traditional type of Lucretia Borgia, Cleopatra, or Jezebel. Mary Sue McWhirter, senior art major from Hopkinsville, practices her galle and cunning in the subtleties of color and decoration.

Art seniors sometimes are given problems to work out—projects which are practical applications of the studio studies they have had. To Mary Sue came the first-class problem of decorating the new offices of Dean of Women Sarah B. Holmes and Assistant Dean Jane Hselden. Her starting point was what she termed "a pea-green political science lecture room."

Made Assets Of Problems
Though she considered it an opportunity, Mary Sue said there were still problems facing her. In a surprising way she has turned them into artistic assets.

For instance the three offices (two inner sanctums and a reception room) were reached at the top of a breath-taking, two-decker flight of stairs. Coeds had a "drop-dead complex" by the time they had reached their destination.

First of all the campus decorator tackled the landing outside the reception room. Primarily used as a resting point and an overflow space when the outer office became clogged with women students, it became a conversation group (a chummy, get-together setup that promotes congeniality).

Possibilities Limited

"The reception room had to be made restful without being drab," Mary Sue said, "and all I had to work with was color and textures."

Most of the furniture either had been moved from former offices, or else already had been selected and ordered by the deans. "The factors of line and shape were dictated by these selections and an array of locker-green desks and files." The student decorator resorted to the walls and a clever chameleon color scheme was devised. On a side with the windows a high clean color such as yellow was used, and darker shades like deep green were applied to the walls that received light from the windows. All the inner offices were treated in the same manner.

"Of course people are accustomed to walls that match, but painters, staff, and students get used to this idea when they see it really works," Mary Sue said.

Judging from comment received this new practice is preferred to the old idea. Visitors particularly praise the office walls.

The offices are as yet incomplete in that draperies and certain accessories have not been installed.

Sub Project Planned

Chairman of the SUB art and poster committee, Mary Sue McWhirter said that a project in the Great Hall of the SUB will be undertaken by that group. Here the furniture will be rearranged into conversation groups instead of the present alignment.

Cookin' With Gaskin

Three students at the University of Michigan wrote a letter to the editor of the Purdue Exponent in praise of the coeds on Purdue's campus. They spent two hours riding around the campus just gazing at the beautiful women. The Michiganers become so discouraged at the idea of returning to the uninteresting females on their own campus that they wrote a letter formally asking for an exchange en masse of the entire coed population between the two schools.

As a consolation to Purdue if they approved of the situation, the boys advanced the idea that although the Purdue males might not like the whole idea, it would probably improve Purdue's football team.

—Some consolation, huh?

Ski bottom pajamas are also the latest fashion.

The University of Georgia Interfraternity Council has signed Charlie Spivak and his orchestra for one of their Homecoming Dances.
Why doesn't UK get busy and do something like that? Just because Joyland exists is no reason for our leaving it all to them. A lot of students who don't have access to cars can't get out to Joyland, but it would be an elementary matter to walk over to the SUB. Will anyone take a hint?

Have you ever walked out of the UK library with grimy hands? Although the situation could be much worse, the books do get kinda dusty up in the stacks.
The University of Akron has dissolved an annoying situation by hiring an employee who does nothing but dust books.

Mary Ann Spenser's occasional weekend jaunts to the University of Virginia leave her mighty happy.

Mary Oldham and Bud McMeek seem to enjoy each other's company.

It's good to see that Alpha Gam pledge ribbon on Bill Wade. How about that for making points?

Constant twosomes: Sara Mae Greene and Lewis Hammon; Mary Powell Geiger and Joe Newell.

John Pfeiffer seems to be giving Dick Rhodenyre a powerful hard time. She's hitting it strong with Tom Taylor.

Headed for trouble is Frank Benton. We thought he was pined to Nancy Roberts but at the date rate he keeps, it seems as though he's after more than just one Chi O gal.

Donnie Burkhardt is making Dal Thorpe look starry-eyed.

Watch out for news from Liz Gunther and Andy Moats.

Mary Dunlap and Ann Macklin can hardly wait for the dinner bell at the Kappa House.

It's hard to believe that "Sugar Pie" has given up all others for Jeff.

Every hour on the hour—it's ole faithful Kim Penrod. Which does he love best—the KD House or his pin?

Isn't 3:30 a little late to start a date? Jimmy Long and Carolyn Critchlow don't seem to think so.

Perhaps the police should hear more about this one. A certain Alpha Xi was kidnapped and taken to Georgetown Sunday night by five Alpha Sigs.

Jim Barlow hasn't been caught snoozin' on any dates since he pined Ann Douglas.

Hunter says she and J. W. Davis have been pined the longest on campus. Anybody want to debate the issue?

Happy Birthday, Dear Scorpio; Stars Forecast Your Destiny

By Pat Thomas

Do you consider yourself a genius, a quick thinker, a determined character, the master of your family, and generally a superior being? If you were born in November, the stars seem to bear out your opinion.

It is said that those born under the sign of Scorpio, October 23 to November 22, inherit a genius of eloquence. They are powerful and magnetic speakers, and when their spiritual nature is aroused they make the most popular and convincing clergymen. One strong characteristic of these people is a silent, dignified superiority of appearance. They are especially fond of outdoor sports and are natural lovers of travel.

Look out fellows. Maybe you think you will rule the family with a firm grip, but if the little woman was born under the sign of Cusp of Scorpio-Sagittarius, you may be due for the proverbial peck of the hen.

Cusp of Scorpio-Sagittarius
When the birthdate falls under this sign, November 22 to 28, there is a point of energy and invincible determination. These people learn equally well from books and experience. They are sometimes remarkable imitators and if properly trained are graceful in manner and agreeable in speech.

They are afraid of nothing. The word of the woman is law in her household. However, failure to receive what is considered due praise and consideration has marked effect upon their happiness.

Sign of Sagittarius
Have you need of a quick thinking person in an emergency? Someone who is not always prying? You might consult those born between November 22 to December 21 under the sign of Sagittarius.

People of this sign rarely make mistakes when they follow their own inspirations but are sure to be led astray if they rely upon the advice of others. They are distinguished for minding their own business and keeping secrets. They always want to finish one thing before beginning another and are remarkable for their carefulness of detail.

These people are enterprising and progressive and always courageous in an emergency, but are frequently timid and afraid when there is no need for action or quick thought. An emergency is an inspiration.

A happy birthday to all Scorpio, Cusp of Scorpio-Sagittarius, and Sagittarius students. May you live up to your forecast by the stars. Abba cadabra.

Wah Jones is another Wildcat who has already surpassed his performance of last year. This year he has caught 10 passes for a net gain of 108 yards and two touchdowns. Last year, he caught nine passes for 93 yards and two TD's.

Students Air Their Complaints On Thanksgiving Holiday Plan

By Jerry Finch

"Wanted: Thanksgiving Vacation." This headline in last week's editorial in the Kernel reflected the opinion of most UK students.

The situation is that Thanksgiving Day only is recognized as a holiday by the University. Cutting a class the day before or after the Thanksgiving Thursday results in a penalty of one semester hour and one quality point being added to graduation requirements for each class missed.

Eight spot interviews were made on the campus and each student was asked his reaction to the editorial.

Students' Comments

Gaylord Caswell, Carlisle: "I think we should have at least Friday and Saturday added to the holiday. Even the smaller colleges, such as Eastern, have the four day vacation and this is a state university."

Joan Pfeiffer, Louisville: When the University changed to the semester system, we thought we would get the extra time for Thanksgiving. Now we are being put off the same as last year when the explanation was lack of time because of the quarter system."

Charles Whaley, Williamstown: "Students will begin to believe that the Board of Trustees (or whoever grants requests) is human enough to understand our problem if the Thanksgiving holidays are granted. The extra time would be a godsend for catching up on all work due before Christmas."

Ann Guthrie, Pineville: "Under the present system there is a predominance of classes on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday and cutting a day for Thanksgiving would result in a heavy penalty. We need a break in the long grind from September until Christmas."

Give And Take

Ray Connor, Jacksonville, Florida: "It's a good editorial and I'm all for it. But everytime the University gives you something, they take it away somewhere else."

Neen Schlegel, Louisville: "The other colleges and universities grant weekend Thanksgiving holidays. It would seem that UK could do as much. Students who live too far from school to make it home in one day could make the trip with the added time."

Becky Noble, Astabula, Ohio: I certainly do want the Thanksgiving vacation if the University isn't going to deduct it from our Christmas vacation to make up for it. I'm a senior and haven't been home for Thanksgiving dinner for four years."

George Reynolds, Cynthiana: "What about those who must travel a day or so to reach home? They would welcome the break at Thanksgiving. As a whole the editorial is a good reflection of student opinion."

First Lecture Given For Disciple Group

The first in a series of five discussions on "Christianity Takes Preference in Vocations" was led by Howard W. Beers, head of the Department of Rural Sociology, Sunday at Central Christian Church.

Dr. Maurice F. Seay, dean and registrar of the University, will lead the second discussion Sunday. The series is sponsored by the Disciples Student Fellowship, student organization of members of the Christian Church.

The recreation program begins at 5 p.m., followed by a dinner at 6 p.m. The discussion programs are held after the dinner.

Eldon S. Dummit, Lexington lawyer, will lead the discussion Nov. 21, and Dr. J. Farra Van Meter, physician, will speak Nov. 28. The secretary's point of view will be presented by Miss Ruth Packard, director of administration of Central Christian Church, Dec. 5.

Dr. M. Broadbrook has been initiated into the professional chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma at Louisville.

Student Petition Calls For Extension Of Thanksgiving Holiday

Alpha Iota chapter of Zeta Beta Tau took the lead this week in circulating a petition among the student body calling for an extension of the Thanksgiving holiday.

The petition, which follows, was distributed to every organization of the University and was posted on the campus bulletin boards.

Dear President:

It has come to our attention that the University plans to give only one day, Thursday, November 25, as its Thanksgiving holiday. This means that even those students who live within a very close radius of Lexington will not be able to be at home for Thanksgiving.

Full Time Given Before War
It is our belief that the Thanksgiving holiday should be extended to Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. We have checked with other Universities and find that they, almost unanimously, are giving their students from four to five days off. A full holiday was given before the war when the semester system was operating and this year, along with starting a week earlier than usual, we are not receiving the full holiday due and are not receiving any extra Christmas vacation.

Will Petition Officials

We believe that if all campus organizations would petition the University officials for a holiday starting November 24 through November 29, then the students attending this centrally located school could be home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

We would appreciate an official opinion from your organization. If this agrees with the majority of the organizations on campus, we intend to petition the University through the key organizations.

Yours very truly,
EMANUEL B. SINGER
President

The request to sign the petition has met with successful response from UK students. The only hesitation expressed by the students is the fear that the University will deduct the time from Christmas vacation if it should extend the Thanksgiving holiday.

Freshman Y Appoints Committees, Officers

Freshman Y committees were formed at the weekly meeting Nov. 2 in the Student Union Card room.

Committee chairmen appointed were Frances Barnett, program; Betty Dickerson and Martha Tarp-ley, worship; Jane Webb, publicity; Bacon Moore, membership; Robert Vittetow, music.

The new officers of the Freshman Y Club are Cline Duff, president; Frances Barnett, vice-president; and Jess Maloney, secretary. Harold Holtzclaw, YMCA president, and Sara Mae Greene, YWCA president, spoke to the freshmen on YMCA and YWCA activities on the campus.

Maryland was the fourth colony to have a newspaper. The custom of spacing words became general in the year 1000.

Convo Address Treats Problems Facing Germany

By Wallace J. Fox

The restoration of a self-supporting economy on a new political basis is the possible solution of the present problem existing in Germany. Mr. George T. Fonda, steel company executive, said in a slide-illustrated convocation address in Memorial Hall Friday morning.

The speaker, a delegate to an international industrial conference held in Stockholm last year who afterwards inspected Germany's post-war industry at the request of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, presented three other alternatives in a situation he called "the most complicated in the United States today."

Lists Three Proposals

The United States could:

1. Get out of Germany and give Russia and the communists a free rein.

2. Adopt the Morgenthau Plan of reducing Germany to an agricultural state in which event one-third of the German people will die of starvation.

3. Declare war with Russia in order to remove the communist threat.

A-Bomb Is Defense

Mr. Fonda does not believe war with Russia is imminent because of the atomic bomb. However, he does express a fear that the communists are gaining power in Germany by infiltration in German industry.

"Russia is out to wreck the European Recovery Program," the speaker said, advocating that the United States stay in Berlin. He termed the U. S. sector of the city "an island of democracy in a sea of communism."

The present blockade is one way the Russians hope to accomplish the removal of U. S. forces he said. So far it has not been too effective.
